Municipal Christmas Tree Will Be Given December 22

CHRISTMAS TREE IS BEING PREPARED

SANTA CLAUS TO ARRIVE AT 2 O'CLOCK.

JUDGE THOMAS WILL SPEAK

Will Be On Main Street, Saturday Night, If Weather Permits; Otherwise In the Auditorium.

The Christmas tree is here, having been placed at Main and Walnut, Wednesday, under the direction of E. E. French. The tree was hauled from San Pedro by Raymond Grey, manager of the E. K. Wood Lumber Co., which firm donated it. The exercises will be at 7:30 Saturday evening. The committee having charge has decided that if it should be raining, or a heavy fog, such as has been prevailing for several days, interfere, the tree and exercises will be in the auditorium on the camp grounds.

As has been announced, the most important event of the occasion will be the calling of the names of the brave boys who have so nobly answered the call to the colors. This will be done by Judge William H. Thomas of Santa Ana, who will deliver a patriotic talk. Judge Thomas is one of the first public men in Orange county to denounce the Kaiser, and is a great favorite in Huntington Beach.

The list of soldier and sailor boys is not yet complete, but it is hoped that friends and relatives will assist in completing it, as no present can be forwarded to the boys unless correct addresses are supplied.

There will be a present for every child who attends, and it is anticipated that there will be a large number of little folks present to welcome their dear old friend, St. Nicholas.

Santa Claus is scheduled to arrive in Huntington Beach at 2 o'clock, Saturday afternoon, and remain in the city until he appears at the tree in the evening.

The merchants of the city have found that the Christmas trade has been so much greater than they had anticipated that more goods were required on short notice. A telegram was sent to Santa Claus for relief, and he wired immediately from Chicago that he was assembling a trainload of supplies for the west, and would attach a car for Orange county, a portion of which would be for the relief of the serious conditions prevailing in Huntington Beach.

The Good Old Friend of childhood will be here at the appointed time and personally superintend the delivery of the extra shipment of goods for the various stores in the city, from a big truck. There is no bunk about Santa Claus, as he always delivers the goods in large packages, and every child in the entire community should be present to witness their Patron Saint at work.

The following program will be rendered:

Band Concert.
"Silent Night," The Audience.
Ladies' Quartet, Mrs. Bowman, Mrs. Elfeld, Miss Turner, Mrs. Copeland.
Cornet Duet, Victor Creamer, G. F. Fowler.
Exercise, by Mexican Children.
Solo, Miss Marie Frenger.
Male Quartet.
Exercise, by Japanese Children.
Girls' Quartet, Miss Marie Frenger, Miss Maybelle Elfeld, Miss Jennie Ufford, Miss Ethel Graham.
Patriotic Address, Judge William H. Thomas of Santa Ana.
"America," The Audience.
Santa Claus.

COMMUNITY SERVICE FLAG HAS BEEN SUGGESTED.

Trustee R. H. Chapin suggests a community service flag for Huntington Beach, to be hung over Main street. The idea is a good one, and in no more fitting way could the municipality display an appreciation of the brave boys who have enlisted to battle against the mightiest army the world has ever known.

NEW AGENT FOR THE PACIFIC ELECTRIC RY.

W. H. OSBORNE SUCCEEDS J. M. KINSEY.

The Pacific Electric Railway and Southern Pacific Company have a new agent in Huntington Beach. Willis H. Osborne of Long Beach has succeeded J. M. Kinsey, who moved to Brea, Friday of last week, to take charge of the Pacific Electric station in that city.

Mr. Osborne has been in charge of the station here since November 19, when Mr. Kinsey took his annual vacation, but he was not appointed as agent until Mr. Kinsey was given the position at Brea.

Mr. Osborne has been with the company for the past six years at Long Beach, and expects to move his family to Huntington Beach in the near future and become identified with the civic life of the city.

MORE THAN 100,000 MILES IN TWENTY-TWO MONTHS.

Chas. E. Dixon, owner of the line of Crown stages operating between Huntington Beach and Santa Ana, states that the Ford buss he is now driving has been on the run 22 months and has been driven 106,000 miles, and is still in good condition. Mr. Dixon has a big 12-passenger car which will soon be on the run, and the car that Mr. Dixon is now driving will be kept as auxiliary equipment, to enable him to maintain the reputation of the "Dependable Line."

A new time card appears in this issue of the News, making some slight changes in the Crown schedule for the winter months.

NEW DEPARTMENT AT THE CONSERVATORY.

WYLDA MILLISON WILL TEACH DRAMATICS.

Mrs. Valentine Cunningham of the Valentine Conservatory of Music and Arts has added a new department to her growing conservatory, and Miss Wylda Millison of New York will teach dramatics and oratory.

Miss Millison arrived from New York two weeks ago, where she was with Mrs. Fiske in "Erstwhile Susan." Miss Millison desires a class of young people in dramatics and one of older people in Shakespeare.

The Conservatory will give a promotion exercise Friday evening, January 4th.

SAYS HE DOES NOT LIVE IN LONG BEACH.

MR. SPENCER HAS COTTAGE ON NINTH STREET.

City Manager Geo. W. Spencer takes exception to the statement in the News last week, saying that he resided in Long Beach. He states that his residence is in the Weinschenk cottage, 175 Ninth street, and has been for more than three years.

SERGEANT TURNER NOW IN JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

Sergeant Forest B. Turner writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Turner, that he has been transferred to Jacksonville, Fla., and is in charge of a squad of ten men taken from Montgomery. He is now in the quartermasters' training camp, and his address is C. 11 Q. M. C., Camp Johnston, Florida.

NEW MANAGEMENT FOR THE PRINCESS

"POP" ENDICOTT IS NOW IN CHARGE.

OPEN THREE NIGHTS WEEKLY

Charlie Chaplin Will Greet His Friends Next Wednesday Night; Popular Bills Will Prevail.

Chas. H. Endicott, commonly known as "Pop," is now in charge of the Princess theatre, having assumed control of that popular amusement house Wednesday morning. "Pop" announces that your old friend, Charlie Chaplin, will be the headliner next Wednesday evening, and that popular bills will prevail at the Princess Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday nights of each week.

Mr. Endicott is director of the Huntington Beach municipal band and is one of the best known men in the community, although he has only resided here little more than one year.

One of the contemplated changes is an advertising curtain, to take the place of the slides shown at the opening of each evening.

Mrs. Alex. P. Nelson, who has owned the theatre since June, 1915, has shown good, wholesome pictures, and she and Mr. Nelson will continue to reside in Huntington Beach. They have a fine home at Eighteenth and Olive, and Mr. Nelson is city attorney for the city of Huntington Beach.

Mr. Nelson has moved his law office to W. D. Seely's real estate office.

WAR-SAVINGS STAMPS ARE NOW ON SALE.

CAN BE OBTAINED AT THE POST OFFICE.

The new war-savings stamps are now ready for distribution to those who feel inclined to loan their Uncle Samuel money in small amounts. Everyone who has 25 cents can help win the war by asking Postmaster T. C. DeLapp for a stamp.

If you buy a 25-cent stamp, you will be given a thrift card with room for 16 of the 25-cent stamps. The value of this collection is $4, and if you pay 12 cents more, the Government will redeem the stamps in the year 1923 for $5.

A $5 stamp can be purchased for $4.12, which will be redeemed at the same time for the same amount, being equivalent to 4 per cent interest compounded quarterly. With the $5 stamp, the purchaser is given a war-savings certificate, with room for pasting on 20 stamps.

This move is made by the Government in order to give every citizen an opportunity to assist in financing the war, who cannot afford to buy a Liberty Bond. This is a test of loyalty to the Federal Government, as but few can offer the excuse that they are unable to buy at least one 25-cent stamp.

DO NOT BUY FROM UNKNOWN PERSONS.

THERE IS MORE OR LESS DANGER.

There are so many German spies and traitors in the country at this time that it is unsafe to purchase anything from strangers, and it will be well for everybody to confine their purchases to those whom they know and can trust.

A recent issue of the Houston Signal, published in Houston, Minn., contains the information that strangers in that county had sold a preparation to prevent hog cholera, and that hogs soon began dying in vast numbers.

Buy nothing from strangers, and make no donations for war purposes except those endorsed by the Government.

TWO FORDS SOLD.

Ford touring cars have been delivered to A. J. Hauptman of Smeltzer and N. Walton of Wintersburg by T. B. Talbert & Co., Ford distributors for this section of the county.

Secretary S. W. Price is making a special effort to get new members. A review of the work by Mr. Price shows that the first great undertaking by the Board of Trade was the bringing of the Methodist Assembly to Huntington Beach. The matter was first taken up through a committee appointed by the Board of Trade to confer with the Huntington Beach Co., with the result that the company donated the site, and the Board of Trade raised the subscription of $5,000 required.

There were 22,839 tons of sugar beets harvested in this district and shipped to the factories at Chino and Oxnard, this year. Considerably more than half tested over 16% sugar. More than half the crop yielded over 12 tons per acre. The following table shows the number of cars harvested and the test for each load:

Car Loads	% Sugar
1	8
7	9
36	10
69	11
165	12
322	13

The average tare for the season was only 3.6 per cent.

"Low sugar is caused," writes Senator Jones, district manager, "in part by wide thinning, in part by alkali land planted late when but few seeds will come up, and in part by poorly prepared land from plowing to planting."

G. A. Corbett turned a big tarantula over on its back at the grocery store of W. L. McKenney & Co., Tuesday, before he realized what it was. The bug was on the counter, and it is supposed to have come from a bunch of bananas. It was cold and did not bite. It was a large specimen and was sent to A. Shrosbree to mount.

The fire committee of the Board of Trade had out the hose cart Tuesday to test the hose and try the pressure of the new reservoir. The hose was found to be in good condition and the water pressure excellent. A stream was thrown clear over the bank building.

Last Friday night the Fraternal Aid Association elected the following officers: President, James A. Lake; vice-president, Mrs. Ruth Lindgren; secretary, Mrs. Ella G. Ward; treasurer, W. D. Seely; medical examiner, Dr. Wilson; chaplain, Mrs. Mary McCain; guide, Mrs. Lola Damron; observor, J. W. Walker; trustees, J. R. McCain, Mrs. Hannah Stewart; musician, Mrs. Fanny Hombogen. After the close of the session an interesting program was rendered by Captain Seely's side of the contest. Popcorn was also served by the captain. At the next meeting Captain Mrs. Franklin and her assistants will have charge of the program.

Mrs. Sigler, Mrs. Roissy and Mrs. Clippinger attended the annual convention of the Woman's Home Missionary Society at Los Angeles, Thursday and Friday.

Ernest Lewis arrived here recently from Manchester, England, and is stopping at the home of Captain and Mrs. H. F. Shorting.

S. E. Talbert has completed the extension to Ditch No. 1 in the Talbert Drainage District, and has moved his gang to Newport to begin work on the new automobile road from there to Balboa.

BANKS WILL GIVE PRIZES TO CHILDREN.

$68 IN CASH WILL BE GIVEN TO SCHOOL STUDENTS.

The officials of the First National and Savings Banks of Huntington Beach have decided to offer prizes to the school children of this community in lieu of the usual advertising, such as calendars, etc., given out by the banks at this season of the year in the past. The sum of $68 has been set aside for this purpose, and $10 will be offered students of the art department of the High school for the best idea of a thrift poster.

Twenty-three dollars will be awarded for the best essay on thrift; $8 of which will go to the High school and $15 for the Grammar school.

Prizes for the best thrift slogan amount to $10, and the students of all the schools in this vicinity are eligible to compete, including the schools at Bolsa, Fountain Valley, Harper-Fairview, Newhope, Newport, Ocean View, Springdale, Westminster and Huntington Beach. The work of the winners will be displayed at the school fair, to be held some time next February. The results will also be published in the News.

This move shows commendable enterprise on the part of the management of the banks, and will no doubt create considerable interest among the school students of the valley. Read the bank ad for details of the contest.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL NOTES

(Second Grade.)

The following program was given in the second grade room, Friday, December 14th, at 1:00 o'clock. Miss Grabill made a few remarks, which were in substance as follows:

"I find that the exercises we give Thanksgiving, Christmas, and so on, are of practical value to both parents and children. Besides doing a great deal of hand work the past week, we have tried to do special work on our music, poems, and dramatization. Of course, dramatization is one of the greatest steps toward practical reading. A child loves to act, and this gives him a desire to understand the thought in his lesson and make it a part of himself in order to express it in story form or dramatization. Hence, really we have been reviewing what our course of study calls for, and I can see that it is a splendid examination for a lower grade, because the pupils are examining themselves to see whether they can measure up to certain parts they desire to take. Of course, they do not all excel in the same things, for the same work does not appeal to all alike; but I can see the value of encouraging the child to sing his songs, tell his stories, etc., by taking to listening to his efforts and praising him for trying as well as doing, for the trying is bound to bring success finally, though at times it may seem slow. A mother finds that if she does not succeed with her first cooking, a word of hope from the other members of the family is very helpful, and as she practises, with a desire to do well, she becomes an expert in her work. So it is with the father's work, why not with the children?"

By MRS. M. G. WATERS

Obituary.

Mrs. Hattie Wells McCoy Burlingame was born at Henry, Illinois, June 11th, 1869. She was called home last Sabbath, December 9th, 1917, at 10 p. m. December, 1873, with her parents, she came to Westminster, Cal., where she has spent the most of her life. She was married to Anson H. Burlingame, February, 1902. After an interval, Mr. and Mrs. Burlingame returned to Westminster, remaining about five years. For a few years they made their home at Long Beach. In the old Presbyterian church, replaced by the present one, Mrs. Burlingame was received into membership in her thirteenth year; in it funeral services were held five years ago for her mother, and four years before for her father. During most of her life, associated intimately with this church, Mrs. Burlingame has from childhood to mature womanhood evidenced her religious devotion and service, in all the activities of the church life. In the Bible school, in the choir, with her sweet voice and musical ability, and later in the Endeavor Society her consecration has been marked. Her sweet, gentle spirit; her rare winsomeness; her charm and grace of manner; her ever-faithful witness for the Master—all these won her the esteem of all, and gave her the love of those who knew her best. But, above all else, her deep religious life was most radiant and marked and strong. She leaves to cherish her memory, to live under the continued inspiration of her splendid life, her beloved husband, her sister, Mrs. Mary Cook, New London, Iowa; her brother, W. B. McCoy, Westminster, Cal.; two half-sisters, Mrs. Purcell and Miss Jessie McCoy, of Bell, Cal.; two half-brothers, John J. McCoy, Beaumont, and Chester McCoy, Train, Cal. Funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church, December 13th, at 1:30 p. m. The choir sang "Sun of My Soul, Thou Saviour Dear." Rev. Buell read the scriptures; Rev. Frame of Long Beach led in prayer; Pastor Wardle read the obituary; Miss Miksch of Long Beach sang "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go," and Pastors Wardle and Buell gave short addresses bearing on the radiant life of the deceased. The interment was at Santa Ana, the service at the grave closing with one stanza of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again." It was a great service. From far and near friends came, by word and presence voicing their hearts' affection for the loved one called home.

WEEKLY GREETING.

Let your religion be seen, lamps do not talk, but they do shine. A lighthouse sounds no drum, it beats no gong, yet far over the waters its friendly light is seen by the mariner.—C. H. Spurgeon.

"OVER THE TOP."

It now may be well said that the prohibition movement is "Over the Top." The great struggle for a dry nation was pushed over the apex of the opposition in the nation's capital Monday, when more than two-thirds of the Congressmen and United States Senators in Washington assisted in the successful bombardment of the strongly entrenched liquor interests, that have held the fort at the capital for generations.

The legions of Old John Barleycorn, by this signal victory, have been scattered to the four winds of the American Union, and will now entrain for Sacramento, and the capitals of the other twenty liquor-soaked commonwealths, where they will erect cantonments and make desperate, frantic and unsuccessful efforts to stay the flow of the mighty dry wave that is rapidly engulfing them. Nothing now remains in Washington to remind one of the evil traffic but empty whisky barrels and beer bottles.

The vote in the House of Representatives was a staggering blow to the foes of good government, as it had long been their strongest citadel, and, like the Hindenburg line, was supposed to be impregnable. But the distillers, brewers and saloonmen have never appeared to realize that evil disappears before good, like frost before the rays of the morning sunshine.

Even our own William Kettner of the Eleventh California District was converted by the close call his friends in the business had at the recent election in San Diego, when they were only saved by the hair-splitting margin of 248 votes, and voted for the dry measure. When the question was voted upon at a previous session of Congress, Mr. Kettner was one of Old John's lieutenants, but he was wise enough to interpret the hand-writing on the wall correctly, for which he is entitled to due credit.

The passage of this bill is one of the most important acts of the Congress of the United States since the ratification of the Constitution by the original thirteen states, as it forever seals the fate of the greatest enemy of mankind in the world today, and clears the decks for the final battles that will free millions of men from the entangling chains of alcoholic slavery.

The vote in the House was 282 to 128, but 8 more than the required two-thirds. There was no roll call in the Senate, and the vote was 47 to 8, but 55 of a total membership of 96 being present.

THE TURK AND THE GERMAN.

For many years the Turk has been abhorred by Christendom and designated as the most brutal and barbarous human being forming a component part of the civilized world.

For about the same number of years the German has been considered by many to be the most advanced man in the universe.

The present war has developed the fact that the German is more brutal, destructive and barbarous than his Turkish ally has ever been at any stage of his abominable career.

The world rejoiced a few days ago at the capture of the ancient city of Jerusalem, capital of the Holy Land, from the Moslems. There are no indications in the reports that the Mohammedans made any attempt to destroy the city. Who doubts that, had the Germans held the sacred city, it would today be a shapeless mass of ruins?

The writer has shared with many others for several years the opinion that Turkey has no inherent right to exist as a nation, and its toleration by the great civilized Christian nations has been one of the crimes of the ages.

The time has arrived when the German empire should suffer the same fate as that suggested for the Ottoman autocracy, and be obliterated from the map, so that it may be remembered no more.

The authenticated German atrocities will forever darken the pages of history, and have placed a stigma upon the German name that it is doubtful if the dissolving sands of time will ever remove. Therefore, is there any moral reason why the name should longer be known among the great nations of the earth? The Imperial Empire should be dismembered and the integral parts composing it segregated that they may again become independent countries with democratic forms of government.

The road to Berlin is a long and bloody one, but the Liberty Boys will traverse it sooner or later, and militarism will disappear from the face of the earth.

"UNLOAD YOUR COAL AND FUEL WOOD BETWEEN SUNRISE AND SUNSET."

Owing to the fact that the coal shortage is daily becoming more acute, the closest co-operation between railroads, shippers and retail coal and wood dealers MUST be maintained.

The present coal shortage is due more to the congestion of freight and scarcity of cars than to shortage of coal at the mines, and it is of the utmost importance that cars be loaded and unloaded as rapidly as possible, so that empties may be available for the transportation of coal and fuel wood.

Therefore, in order to expedite the movement of all coal and fuel wood cars, and in furtherance of such co-operation, the Federal Fuel Administrator for California hereby directs that all cars containing coal and fuel wood received after the receipt of this communication be unloaded within twenty-four hours and the railroad immediately given notification.

Failure in thus co-operating with the Administration will result in placing coal and fuel wood with those dealers only who handle the cars most efficiently.

ALBERT E. SCHWABACHER,
Federal Fuel Administrator for California.

TWENTY-NINTH ANNUAL ROSE TOURNAMENT.

BIG FOOTBALL GAME WILL BE A FEATURE.

So much prominence has been given to the football games featuring Rose Tournament Day at Pasadena, January 1st, the last two years, that the wonderful floral parade held in the morning has been overshadowed, to a certain degree, in advance publicity concerning the Tournament.

It is only natural that this should have been the case, for these annual gridiron contests are of international interest, and are generally regarded as definitely settling which plays the best football, the East or the West. However, all this does not mean the floral parade, which has been a feature of New Year's Day in Pasadena for twenty-eight years, is any the less interesting. On the contrary, the pageant is more beautiful, larger and more impressive every year.

The coming event promises to be carried out on even a more elaborate scale than ever before, and there is no question that it will be witnessed by a larger crowd. It is estimated that 250,000 persons will be in the Crown City New Year's Day.

TODAY IS ONE OF THE SHORTEST DAYS OF YEAR.

Thursday and today mark the turn in the length of the days, being the shortest days of the calendar year. On these days the sun rises at 6:55 and sets at 4:47, making but 9 hours and 52 minutes daylight. However, there will be but little change in the daylight situation for several days, as December 31st is but 3 minutes longer than today.

SERGEANT TURNER WRITES FROM CAMP SHERIDAN.

Quartermaster Corps,
Camp Sheridan, Ala.

Dear Friends: December 7, 1917.

I have been so busy of late that I have not had time to write you, and, had I had the time, I doubt that I should have been able to write anything new or of interest.

I think perhaps a description of my Thanksgiving dinner would be of some interest to you. I can assure you it was of grave interest to us. Thanksgiving day was one which throughout our lives we shall not forget, for we have never been treated in the army as we were that day. The mess hall was very beautifully decorated, even the tables had tablecloths on them, and by each plate was a dainty paper napkin. However, I did not see a single person use one, for all of us folded them up and put them in our pockets to send to mother, sister, or someone whom we were thinking about on that day.

After taking our seats, a quartet of negroes with instruments played and sang while, for the first time in army life, we had our meal served us in courses. Oh, what a meal it was! There was turkey, Irish spuds, sweet yams, cranberry sauce, celery, pickles, two kinds of bread, butter, coffee, real cream, sugar, apple sauce, peas, string beans, three kinds of pie, three kinds of cake, smokes, peanuts, and a dainty little booklet with the menu and each man's name printed in it with the flag, Old Glory, in colors on the cover.

But that isn't all that I had for Thanksgiving, for some of my home folks and good Huntington Beach friends sent me cakes and candy, which made Thanksgiving last for a week longer. We don't forget those things, and when all that we can give in return is a "thanks," we sometimes feel as though the good people at home were sacrificing too much just to try and make us go about with warm hearts and forget the cares which come to us all in the army.

Last night there were a few flurries of snow fell, but by morning the sky had cleared and the ground lay white with frost. After a rain or cloudy spell in this country it always turns cold.

The army has many things which seem trials to us, but I would not have you think that it is all so, for it is not. We have our fun in the army as we would elsewhere. For instance, when we had the cyclone in September, the things we were going through were very exciting and really funny, and, while we didn't know what minute things were going to leave us in an awful fix, still we laughed while we tried to hang onto our tents, after the wind had taken them to field. You will remember this was in the middle of the night. Such ways are the ways of men, and were it not so I think that the army life would soon become so unbearable that none of us could stand it.

Then a few nights ago, a friend of mine, the day mechanic of this garage, and I sat together writing some rhyme, or at least we thought it was. The following is what we wrote, and we meant every word of it. I sat at this machine and suggested things and helped that way as I wrote, while he made the verses. I will ask the editor to publish the article, not so much for what is in it as to give you an idea of what the soldier boys are thinking when opportunity permits:

As ever, your friend,
Sergeant Forest B. Turner.

TWENTY-TWO VOLUNTEERS.

Q. M. C., Co. 216, Camp Sheridan, Ala.

When the call to arms was sounded,
In this land we love so well,
Among the young men that responded
Of twenty-two I now will tell.

From the bay of San Francisco,
And Point Loma line they came,
To gather at the old Presidio,
Knowing not each other's name.

From civilians into rookies
They were very quickly changed,
In the khaki of a soldier,
In marching files, they were arranged.

Here they heard some awful stories,
That did each and all alarm,
Of the hypodermic needle
That would pierce them in the arm.

Here they spent a week in training,
Learning things they all must know,
How they should stand at attention,
Doing squads right, to and fro.

Here they met commissioned officers,
And salute these men they must,
Tho they could not keep from thinking,
For a day, it was unjust.

Then at first call in the morning,
Out of bed, each one must dress,
Washing first, and then to roll call,
Then a mad rush for the mess.

When a list of names were posted
On the bill board for K. P.,
Fearful then each man stood reading,
For his name there he might see.

Now perhaps you might wonder
What this K. P. really means;
It's a thing they dreaded mostly,
Peeling spuds and washing beans.

Then came orders to move forward,
And the joy you should have seen,
As they strapped on their knapsacks,
Each and all of two-sixteen.

Little did they think that ere long
To quaint Alabama they would go,
And to the land of the pickaninny,
Where the cotton blossoms grow.

On the fifteenth of September
They left old Frisco's smoke behind,
Never thinking, never dreaming,
Of the things they were to find.

Off across the sands of Yuma,
And across the Texan plains,
Straight into the burning sunrise,
For eastward still the trail remains.

Until at last they see before them
The Mississippi, broad and deep,
With all the boats upon her bosom,
This picture in their minds they keep.

As the fog before them rises,
New Orleans comes into view—
The greatest town in all the southland,
Quaint and charming to them, too.

Here the French and Spanish landed
Many, many years ago;
Here's where Jackson proved his greatness
In eighteen twelve, as you all know.

Here they saw the bales of cotton,
And the sacks of sugar, too,
To be loaded on the steamers,
And be sent the country through.

Onward through the swamps of Mobile,
Now at last the Gulf they see,
With its smooth, reflecting waters—
Full of peace it seems to be.

At last their train is steaming northward,
Through the pines it winds its way.
What this land was ever made for
God alone can only say.

After several days of travel
Through the desert and the sand,
They at last have reached Montgomery,
With Camp Sheridan at hand.

Oh, how well they do remember,
When they left the old home-land,
There they left the scenes of childhood
To cross the great and barren sand.

When they left that land of sunshine
And the friends they used to know,
Free from all the storms of winter,
Free from ice and blinding snow.

In dear old sunny California,
Where the orange blossoms blow,
And the sun is ever shining,
There their thoughts will always go.

When this awful war is over,
And they all are free once more,
Back they'll go to scenes of childhood,
And the old sweet days of yore.

There they'll spend a life of freedom,
With the clear, blue sky above,
With the birds forever singing,
Among the friends they dearly love.

SERGT. HERBERT E. ROSE.

DO YOU KNOW HOW MUCH YOU ARE SAVING?

McKENNEY & BENTLEY'S WEEKLY TALK.

A few things to think about regarding cash, no credit, no delivery:

Does the grocery doing and advertising a strictly cash business come to your door on a rainy morning to get your order for the day? No.

Does he deliver your goods to your door when it is too wet, too windy or too cold for you to go for them? No.

Does he call for your order and deliver it to your door when you are too tired or too sick to go for it? No.

When your work piles up on you so you cannot spare the time to go down town to get an order for your meal, or company drops in on you all unexpectedly, will he send a hurry-up order over the telephone call for you? No.

When your money is unexpectedly delayed, will he tide you over by giving you credit? No.

When you are temporarily out of a job and need credit for thirty or sixty days, can you get it? No.

When it is more convenient for you to pay by the month or week, will he accommodate you? No.

When he tells you that you can buy so much cheaper for cash and no delivery, do you investigate and see just how much you are saving?

Think it over.

JUDGE THOMAS AGAIN REMEMBERS PRISONERS.

SENDS GREETING TO ALL THOSE IN BOND.

Judge and Mrs. William H. Thomas of Santa Ana have again mailed Christmas greetings to all the unfortunates in prison at San Quentin and Folsom. Each year, Judge and Mrs. Thomas have attractive messages printed and sent to those in bond, which no doubt creates new hope in many of those who receive the kind words of encouragement. The message follows:

Our Christmas Greetings in the past were written to you under a sky of peace; these are being prepared under the dark cloud of war. This year men are crying "Peace, peace," and there is no peace. Nations are at each other's throats. Because of all of this turmoil and strife, because of vast armies struggling for mastery, it is supremely a testing time for individuals and nations as well. We are believing that God controls in the affairs of nations as well as those of individuals.

May each of us meet that test—the test of faith, of character, of our belief in and attitude toward the Divine Ruler of the World and His Saviour Son, of whom, whether believers or not, and to whom we turn our thoughts, involuntarily, almost, at this time of the year.

Some time since there appeared in the columns of the Sunday School Times a prayer of a "Veteran Pastor." It is so good that we would like you to have it; and, believing that the splendid sentiment of the prayer will be helpful to you as it was to us, we are passing it on to you:

"Father in heaven, teach us to take interest in other people, and in the wide range of human affairs. Let Thy kingdom come! Refresh our minds with concerns larger than our own appetites, ailments and annoyances. Set us free from our slavery to trifles, and put us at a man's job. Get us into such big and inspiring business that we shall be too busy to notice how other people treat us. Give us joy in the momentous work of Thy church; in missions and revivals; in reforms and peace movements; in the rising tide of philanthropy; in the labors and gifts of men who live to be a public blessing. Keep us in touch with the risen Christ, whose unseen presence is making earth seethe with the spiritual force, and men hunger for the eternal life. So make us vehicles of Thy life that our nerves shall tingle with it, and our days pass swiftly in conveying blessings from the Highest."

Christmas Bells.

I heard the bells on Christmas day
Their old familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet
The words repeat
Of "Peace on earth, good will to men."

And I thought how, as the day had come,
The belfries of all Christendom
Now roll along
The unbroken song
Of "Peace on earth, good will to men."

But in despair I bowed my head—
"There is no peace on earth," I said;
"For hate is strong,
And mocks the song
Of 'Peace on earth, good will to men.'"

Then pealed the bells more loud and deep,
"God is not dead, nor doth He sleep!
The Wrong shall fail,
The Right prevail,
With peace on earth, good will to men."

This, therefore, is our message to you. Please accept it with our very best wishes. "Look Up and Hope."

Very sincerely,
Judge and Mrs. W. H. Thomas.

SOME APPROPRIATELY DECORATED WINDOWS.

Some show windows that are attracting special attention are the ones of McKenney & Bentley, grocers, and one at the store of Henry Gibbs.

The work at McKenney & Bentley's was performed by Will Gallienne, who has considerable talent as a window trimmer.

Mrs. Henry Gibbs was the artist at the other place, and she is to be complimented upon her work.

There are some other windows with nicely arranged displays, but the ones mentioned stand out as shining examples of artistic work.

Community Schools

will compete for prizes offered by

The First National Bank and The Savings Bank of Huntington Beach

A PLAN has been adopted by the First National Bank and the Savings Bank of Huntington Beach for stimulating and encouraging the Thrift Habit in all the scholars in the schools of this community. It is the usual custom of these banks to distribute holiday souvenirs, which at best are soon lost sight of. It occurred to the officers of these banks that if an equal amount of money should be given in prizes, as designated below, to the scholars of all schools in this community, it would be a much wiser expenditure of funds and would bring a more lasting benefit to many. Sixty-eight dollars have been appropriated for prizes, as follows:

A THRIFT POSTER

To be competed for by students of the Art Department of the Huntington Beach High School:

1st Prize	$5.00
2nd Prize	3.00
3rd Prize	2.00

BEST ESSAY ON THRIFT

Section A—Open to High School scholars:

1st Prize	$5.00
2nd Prize	3.00

Section B—Open to Graded or Grammar School scholars:

1st Prize	$5.00
2nd Prize	4.00
3rd Prize	3.00
4th Prize	2.00
5th Prize	1.00

Essays to consist of not more than 500 words and to be composed entirely by the scholars themselves:

BEST THRIFT SLOGAN

Open to all scholars of all schools in this community:

1st Prize	$5.00
2nd Prize	3.00
3rd Prize	2.00

SAVING CONTEST

Open to Graded or Grammar Schools of this community:

To the Graded or Grammar School whose scholars have the largest AVERAGE savings on deposit in either of the Huntington Beach banks, and made during the 4 months from January 1st, 1918, to May 1st, 1918, a picture or piece of statuary, or some useful article of school furniture will be given as a prize, the cost of same not to exceed $25.00.

All savings must be made by the efforts of the scholars themselves and not contributed by parents or friends simply to swell the amount to secure the prize. The Committee on Prizes is to be judge of the validity of Savings Accounts. In determining which school wins the prize, the number of scholars in the school will be taken into consideration, and the average Savings, not the largest total, will win the reward.

Names of those winning prizes, together with some of the best prize essays and slogans, will be published in the Huntington Beach News.

A committee of disinterested judges from outside the competing school districts will be selected to award the prizes.

The Essays on Thrift, the Slogans and the Thrift Posters must be delivered to the Banks not later than February 15th, 1918.

It is expected that a School Exhibit will be held in Huntington Beach during the latter part of February, in which all the community schools will be asked to take part. At this School Fair, or School Exhibit, the prize winners will be announced and the Essays, Posters and Slogans displayed.

The following schools will take part in the contest:

Bolsa School
Fountain Valley School
Harper-Fairview School
Huntington Beach Grammar School
Newhope School
Newport School
Ocean View School
Springdale School
Westminster School
Huntington Beach High School

It is hoped that the parents and teachers will co-operate heartily to make this a real benefit to the young people.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Cure fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

THE NEW YEAR DRAWS NIGH.

Not having saved a dollar this last year, I propose to start the New Year right. By putting away $1.50 the first month and adding to this amount 25c each month, I can, in four and one-half years, own two fine lots, well located, and which will give me a good and permanent investment.

To accomplish this, means that I will have to save five cents a day the first month, and a fraction of a cent more each day in succeeding months. Instead of having nothing at the end of another year, I will have something to show for a little effort.

Does this mean YOU?
